

COBENZL

A EUROPEAN FAMILY BETWEEN
POLITICS, ART AND DIPLOMACY
(1508-1823)

The “journey” of a family from the Karst and Gorizia to the most influential courts of Europe. For the first time the Cobenzl/Kobencł family has been deeply investigated, starting from their private archive to the most disperse sources throughout Europe. Their long-lasting link with Ljubljana is evident, since their family home in the city hosts now the SAZU. The Cobenzls are the protagonists of a book with 36 essays by 32 scholars coming from 8 different countries.
